MAIN EVENT: Jackie Davis, Bio.

Jackie was born in Pittsburgh, and became a member of Lockport Rotary in April, 2009. Jackie is married to Vincent Davis, an investment broker and is the proud mother of four adult sons. Jackie met Vincent while she was studying on a music scholarship at Cornell University. Jackie studied geology (major) with a concentration on environmental studies and music as her (minor). Jackie is a vocal instructor/inspirational singer, worship leader and speaker. She is affiliated with Lockport Music Center and Jackie Davis Music Ministries. Jackie comes from a family of well known musicians and accomplishments. She volunteers at LCTV and teaches piano at the First Baptist Church. Jobs with National Fuel brought the family to WNY. Jackie performed at Carnegie, Lincoln, Kennedy Centers, Princeton, Yale and Kleinhans Music Hall with the Buffalo Philharmonic. Jackie sang "Lift every voice and sing" for us today. She concluded with these words: "We have a chance to make history by the way we live." We are proud to have Jackie in Lockport Rotary.

FINES: G. Giese, Finemaster.

Everyone who did not have a First Niagara or M&T bank card on their person had to pay.

Everyone contributed to the Haiti Relief Fund.
